EH Cover One: bespoke cover for one-off contracts

Are you preparing to sign a contract for the sale of goods or provision of services entailing a large commitment for your company?

Would you like to guarantee payment and protect yourself against the risk of not recouping all the costs incurred?

Euler Hermes, the world's leading credit insurer, provides protection with EH Cover One, offering fixed, bespoke insurance cover internationally.

Protect your earnings

You are covered throughout the term of the contract, both in the Netherlands and internationally. Euler Hermes pays out in the event of a claim involving manufacturing risk or your customer becoming insolvent

Optimise your management

Each contract forms the subject of a single policy with a tailored charging structure. The specifics of the cover are set for the full term of the policy, so you can commit with complete peace of mind

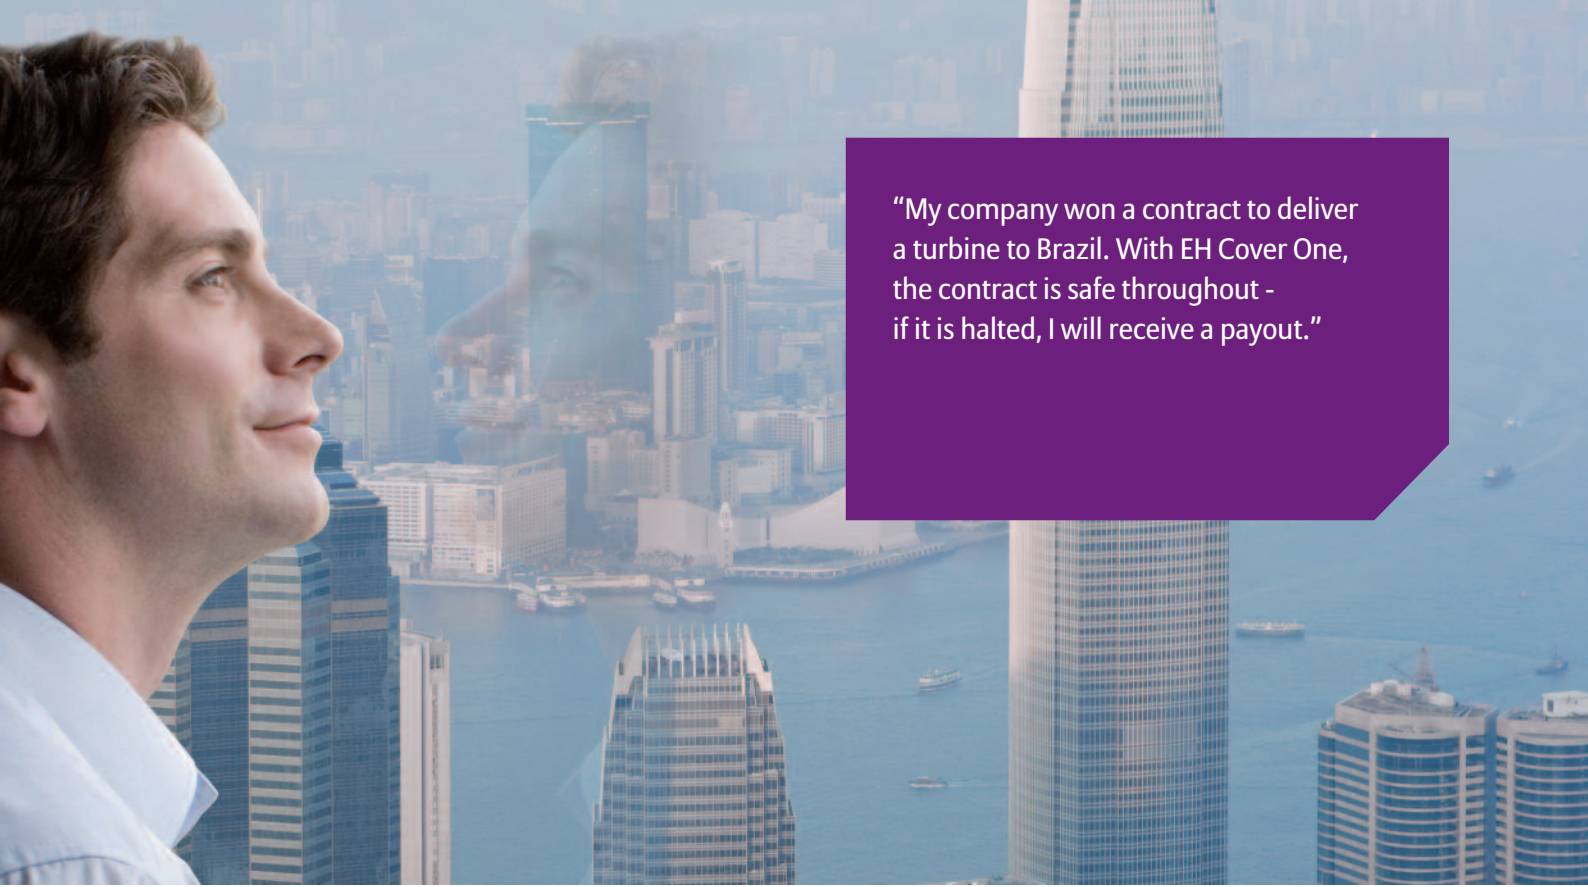

EH Cover One

Reassure your financial partners

Your contract, when backed up by an EH Cover One policy, will secure a positive response from your financial partners, reassured by Euler Hermes' expertise and stability

Expand your business

You gain the full benefit of Euler Hermes' expertise during its risk analysis. With more than 40 million businesses in 130 countries monitored in our database, you can rely on the best underwriting decisions and consequently concentrate on winning new contracts with complete peace of mind

“My company won a contract to deliver a turbine to Brazil. With EH Cover One, the contract is safe throughout - if it is halted, I will receive a payout.”
