 EULER HERMES

Credit insurance that suits your business and sector

Certainty in business dealings is vital to the continuity of your business. You want your commercial undertakings to be swift so that you can continue to grow and enter new markets. Euler Hermes' Business Policy makes this possible with its flexible and customised solutions.

Business information, insurance and collection

Credit insurance consists of three basic elements: business information, insurance and collection. Correct and up-to-date information enables you to correctly assess your customers' risks. The insurance offers you the guarantee of payment. In the event of non-payment, collection is taken care of.

Business Policy

All medium-sized and large enterprises can take out a flexible policy incorporating all the aspects of credit insurance which you can tailor to your business and sector needs. Besides the tailor-made solution, the Business Policy has more advantages..

Your benefits

- Safe and fast business dealings in high-risk countries
- High cover percentage (up to 90 per cent)
- Reduced administrative costs
- Additional cover for contract risks
- Clear online overview of the main policy and risk information

Management

When you take out a policy with Euler Hermes, you will be assigned an account management team to manage your policy and a risk underwriting team that continuously assesses your customers' risks. You will also be given access to our online information system EOLIS which allows you to manage your entire policy and easily retrieve overviews. You are therefore assured of the right support, enabling you to take swift action..
